

INVESTICE DO ROZVOJE VZDĚLÁVÁNÍ

Scientific stay

Tampere University of Technology

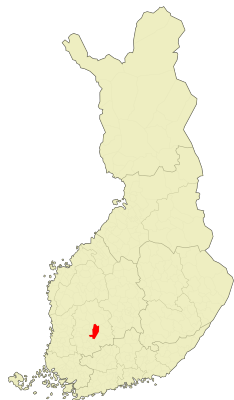

Tomáš Kühn

July 23rd – September 21st 2012

ICIU, Palacky University

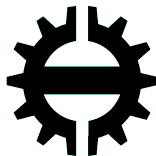

Tampere

- is the third largest city in Finland,
- and capital of Pirkanmaa region,
- located between two lakes Näsijärvi and Pyhäjärvi.
- City population: 217,497.
- See <http://www.tampere.fi/> for more information.

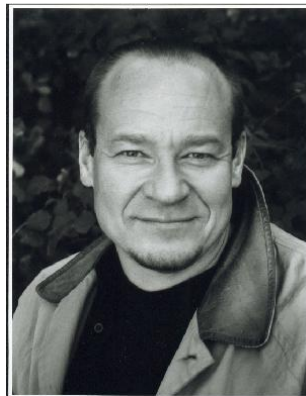

Tampere University of Technology (TUT)

- founded in 1965 as a branch of Helsinki University of Technology.
- University status awarded in 1972.
- TUT consists 5 faculties (F. of Automation, Mechanical and Materials, F. of Science and Environmental Engineering, F. of Built Environment, F. of Business and Technology Management F. of Computing and Electrical Engineering).
- TUT has about 20,000 students and employs over 1,900 staff.
- See <http://www.tut.fi/> for more information.

Esko Turunen

- Associate professor at Department of Mathematics, Tampere University of Technology
- Topics of research:
 - GUHA Method,
 - Many-valued Logics and their Applications,
 - Relational Structures as Knowledge Instruments,
 - Algorithmic Decision Theory,
 - Fuzzy Signal Control.
- For more information, see <http://math.tut.fi/~eturunen/>.

Some pictures

